The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. II. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 8, 1867. NO. 231.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

PRIZES DRAWN.—A "Rural Friend" thus describes two beautiful miniature houses which (being raffled off at the Bazaar) were won, the first by Miss Sallie Roddey, and the other by Mr. J. Oscar Goode:

"We next observe a miniature cottage and farmyard, beautifully made, by a Mrs. Shackelford, of North Carolina. Mrs. S. deserves much credit for the skill she displayed in carrying out the design of a North Carolina cottage and farm yard."

This little building is beautifully ornamented with the burrs of the North Carolina pine, and is as exquisitely tasty in design as it is elegant in workmanship. We learn that the winner contemplates raffling it off again, and presenting half of the proceeds to the Bazaar.

"We then turned again to the left, and beheld the prettiest thing in the fair-room, and which seemed to be the centre of attraction—excepting, of course, the pretty young ladies, with white aprons. Edging our way through the crowd we obtained a good view of a most beautiful miniature city residence; certainly the prettiest thing of the kind ever one beheld. It is about three feet long and nearly as wide, two stories high, and contains seven rooms and two halls, with doors in each room communicating with the halls. On the front view is a porch the length of the house, with four columns, and a beautiful railing around the top of the porch. The doors are pannelled. On the front door is a silver plate, on which is beautifully engraved the name of the little boy who gave it to the Bazaar—Newtie Hill. It has a door-bell; is in perfect order, and seems to be the object of curiosity to both young and old. Looking in at the front door, we saw a pair of stairs, carpeted, and with stair-rods. The house is completely furnished with dining-room, parlor, chamber and nursery furniture. On the front porch is an old couple, looking very happy in the possession of such a beautiful home, and surrounded by children and grandchildren. The yard is very beautifully laid off with walks, fall, fountain, circles, arbors, and a swing with a little girl in it. Entering the gate is a couple in a double buggy, just returning from a drive; and in the parlor is another couple enjoying a bliss only known to courting people. Taking it altogether, it is the most complete thing we have ever seen, and the great centre of attraction for all. We were much surprised to hear that nearly the whole of it was made with a pen-knife and tack-hammer, and without the use of a square or measure of any kind; and, more wonderful still, by a gentleman who has had no experience as an architect or a mechanic. We can only say he ought to follow his talent.

"We saw a large placard on the roof of the house—'For raffle'—and upon applying to the young lady in charge (a Miss Hill) we were surprised to learn that the chances were only fifty cents; a large number of which have been taken. We have several chances in it, and are confident of winning it. If so, what an excitement it will create in the country! All the little folks, far and near, will flock to see it."

The Dayton (O.) Empire is advised of a case in one of the public schools of that city, most revolting to humanity, wherein a female teacher punished a little fellow until he fainted—striking him about fifty one blows on the hand. And that is said not to be the first instance of brutality by the same teacher. Such instances of female ferocity in the school room are becoming very frequent. The schools of Massachusetts and Ohio are gaining unenviable distinction by reason of them.

The New York correspondent of an English paper states that "the ladies of Boston far outstrip the ladies of New York."

So says the Home Journal. But if the "ladies of Boston" really do what is said of them, trade must be dull in the dry goods establishments of that city.

A negro woman left her two little children locked up in her room in Philadelphia, and the following chapter of incidents ensued:—The children set fire to the room while playing with matches, and they were both suffocated to death; a fireman, while endeavoring to extinguish the flames, was struck on the head with an iron hook and killed, and the house of Dr. Clintock, in the vicinity, caught fire from a spark of a steam fire engine at work on the first fire and was almost entirely destroyed.

FAIR PLAY.—The position of Senator Wilson that the outside States in meeting the terms laid down by Congress will be restored to Congress. On that platform the Senator may defy "Old Thad" and all his followers.—N. Y. Herald.

The New York Home Journal not only gives accounts of the "fashionable" weddings in the "commercial metropolis"—but actually publishes the "engagements" existing between ladies and gentlemen, with the names in full.

The Georgia Lunatic Asylum, at Milledgeville, is full, and the public are notified that new patients can be received only as vacancies occur. A building for the reception of insane negroes is in course of construction.

A new and important branch of Southern industry is developing in the swamps of North Carolina and Virginia, from which large quantities of peat are now extracted. In the Dismal Swamp peat can be manufactured at $1.50 per ton, which now costs $6 in New York.

A gentleman of St. Louis recently dressed himself as a female, and called upon a fortune-telling prophetess. He was made unhappy by being assured that he would soon marry and become the mother of ten children.

The Crown Princess of Prussia, who is the daughter of Queen Victoria, has a telegraphic office in her palace at Berlin, and converses daily with her mother through the wires.

A patriotic Federal lawyer, name Iles sentine, refused to argue a case in Savannah last week, because there was a picture of the late Confederate flag hanging on the wall!

The counsel on the other side hoped the loyal object of's feeling would be consulted, as the obnoxious picture doubtless called up many disagreeable reminiscences to the gentleman's mind.

A Mississippi paper says there is not enterprise enough in some of the towns of that State to roll a wheelbarrow down hill on a plank road.

Grateful for the flattering patronage with which we have heretofore been so kindly favored, we respectfully solicit an increased share of the patronage of the citizens of Raleigh and the surrounding country. Without specially gassing, we deem it sufficient to say, that our stock mostly embraces such articles as are usually found in Family Groceries. Most of our goods have been recently bought in New York and Baltimore, for cash, and we hope to be able to sell them on satisfactory terms. In addition to our stock of Groceries, &c., we have a fine lot of

HATS AND READY MADE CLOTHING

and a splendid lot of Confectioneries, consisting of all of which will be sold on reasonable terms.

We have also a fine lot of genuine Durham Smoking Tobacco, which we can implicitly recommend to "those who smoke." Please call and see us.

We will pay particular attention to all consignments of Produce and Merchandise entrusted to our care and will endeavor to sell at the best market prices. Consignments are respectfully solicited. By a prompt and close attention to business and fair dealing with all, we hope to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 8, 1867.

PLAIN TALK AND WELL DESERVED.

The Rutherford Star, a Radical paper, complains heavily of its co-laborer, the Union Register, of Greensboro', because the Register will not give its endorsement to the Holdenite Convention, held in this city on the 27th. of March. The Register, though Radical, is too honest a Union paper to do that thing, and it thus justifies its course:

"We have supported, do support, and will support, the true Union Republican party of North Carolina and the United States. We have done it every hour and every day from 1861 until the present moment. We believed as firmly in the triumph of its principles when we looked upon the day only through the gates of the Libby prison, as we do now. We believe in its principles, we glory in its success, and we love its name. But we would see that party shattered to atoms before we would countenance or endorse any such shameless trickery as the pseudo Republican Convention of the 27th. ult. A part of its members were honest, genuine men, who were bamboozled into the affair to give it eclat. The remainder were mere shams, perfect political mushrooms, who would never have dreamed of such a thing as Republicanism if Yankee Radicals, belonging to the Church Military, had not come here as political missionaries and put down, with steel and lead, the rebellion they aided to inaugurate and carry on. We believe that we have seen better republicans than many of them, wrapped in gray uniforms and lying dead upon the battle-field. Aye, hundreds of them.

You might as well galvanize the old Confederate battle flag with red and blue and ask us to cheer for it as the genuine stars and stripes. You cannot cheat us with any such white-washed Republicanism. We know the car-marks of treason too well to be humbugged by any such pretences.

The Star thinks our remarks were "uncalled for."

Now we thought the votes were uncalled for and showed anything but sound, republican tendencies. Perhaps we don't understand, but we always thought a man who did not vote right, very seldom thought right.

We do not permit any man, North or South, white or black, to excel us in admiration for, or hearty support of, genuine Unionists, North or South. But we hate the spurious, galvanized article as the devil hates holy water. We detest humbug in every form, from a clap-trap patent cure-all to a juggling Convention, from Maggiel's Pills to the Republican party manufactured at Raleigh, March the 27th, 1867. If our paternal ancestor on the father's side were the grand Mogul of the concern, we would denounce him as a scoundrel and a demagogue. Now that is what we think of the Convention. If the Star is anxious we should change, we would be glad to oblige it, and in our next will do our best to take a different course. We can assure the Star, however, that it will assuredly be only another road to the same end."

We think that the Register's course is the only honest, straight-forward course for real bona fide Union men to pursue. We observe that the Wilmington Republicans take the same view. The Sentinel has uniformly maintained that the real, bona fide Union men in the State were the proper men to lead in the work of reconstruction, and it has frequently declared its willingness to follow in the lead of good, true Union men, who look solely to the early restoration of the State to the Union, and the return of peace, quiet and harmony among all classes in the State, and to co-operate with them, as far as possible, in the work of Reconstruction. And yet we are abused as agitators and "rebels."

The votes alluded to by the Register, above, were the votes cast by Messrs. C. L. Harris, W. D. Jones, N. Scoggin, and others of the same stripe, in the Legislature of 1865-6, against allowing colored men to testify in our courts of justice!

THE MISSIONARIES.—We observe that the Southern press generally deplore the purpose of the Republican Central Committee, at Washington, to send political missionaries to our midst to enlighten and save to the Republican party the poor benighted Southern heathen, black and white. It is true it will contribute greatly to the political wrangling, among the blacks especially, taking them from their employments at a time when labor is much needed, and will very generally infuse into the colored population partizan and political rancor, it not hate to the Southern whites. Yet it will give partizan Northern men a chance to see for themselves—furnish an excellent opportunity for the display of the excessive love they bear to the colored race—give the South perhaps a better idea of what Republicanism means, and convince these patriots of the real desire of all parties for the early restoration of peace and harmony to the whole country. It may be, after all, that good, more than evil, may grow out of it.—Our chief concern is that such an overflow of zeal and determination to radicalize the South may breed a famine in the land. In that event, the thing won't pay.

CORRECTION.—We observe that some of our cotemporaries have published Mr. W. A. Dunn's card to the Standard, stating that he was removed from his position on the North Carolina Railroad on account of his Union principles. We subsequently published a reply from Mr. Anderson, Superintendent of the Road, giving the real cause for his removal. It is due to the officers of the Road, as a matter of simple justice, that all who published Mr. Dunn's card, or its substance, should also publish Mr. Anderson's. It is also our duty to state that Mr. Anderson, at the time of, or previously to, sending his reply to us, also sent an exact copy of it to the Editors of the Standard, requesting them to copy it. We have not yet seen Mr. Anderson's card in the Standard. We make this statement to correct the false impression, which seems to prevail, that Mr. Anderson's card was only sent to us for publication.

THE JUDICIAL ERMINE.

It has been a distinguishing characteristic of the people of the United States, who possessed any regard for law and order, always to respect the character and protect the prerogatives of the Judiciary. As a rule, the Judiciary of the country has generally been composed of gentlemen of high moral character and unsullied legal and professional reputation. Hence the general respect entertained by the people has seldom been misplaced.

An exception, however, unfortunately exists in the case of Underwood, of Virginia. From the first, he has excited among the people of that State general opposition and disgust. His recent charge to the Grand Jury of his Court, at Richmond, has served to intensify that opposition. It is unlike, in character and temper, any similar charge we have ever seen. That moderate and conservative paper, the Whig, is so provoked as to utter the following language in regard to it:

"UNDERWOOD'S charge to his Grand Jury yesterday will be found in our columns this morning. We have no hesitation in saying that certain of its allusions to this city are the most wantonly mendacious and brutally libellous utterances that ever came from the bench of any civilized country. They sink their author beneath the fellowship of the lowest jail-birds. It is impossible to give expression to the scorn and contempt which every honorable man must feel for the depravity of a heart that can engender calumnies so vile."

We regret this. It is a bad sign. Either Judge Underwood is totally unfit for his position, or there is a most serious change coming over the character of our people, adverse to law and order, and oblivious of the respect due to the high position of the Judiciary. But the uniform respect still shown to the Judiciary, as a general rule, leads to the conclusion that Underwood should be unfrocked at the earliest moment, for his bald unfitness and his vile prostitution of the dignity of his office.

ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN BRAZIL.

This proposed abolition of slavery in Brazil will excite no surprise among those who are conversant with the tendencies of affairs in that country. It has been a foregone conclusion since the forcible destruction of the institution in the United States. By the decree of the Emperor of Brazil, all who were born after the 8th of April last are free, and slavery shall cease at the end of twenty years from this date.

In 1856, Brazil had a population of 7,677,800, of which it was estimated that 2,000,000 were whites, 1,121,000 mixed free people, 800,000 civilized Indians, 600,000 mixed slave population, and 2,000,000 blacks, or African slaves. Thus, it will be seen that five sixths of the population are either negroes or persons of mixed blood, and two fifths of these are slaves. Slavery in Brazil, although a vigorous institution, and often attended with circumstances of individual hardship, has not produced the distinctions of caste which attend it in most other countries. The "prejudice of color," which is so common in the United States, is unknown in Brazil. The laws of the country render manumission easy; and once emancipated the negro finds every calling and office fully open to him as to the white. In the army or navy, in commerce, agriculture or manufactures, in social or political position, color is no barrier to the highest distinction. We are afraid the Southerners who have left us to enjoy the benefits of an institution of which they were deprived in this country, will not find exactly what they were led to expect in Brazil. With negro equality already the rule, and slavery disappearing and under the ban of the law in their new home, the Southern emigrants will probably come to the conclusion that it would have been better to have manfully accepted their fate in their own country rather than to have abandoned it as such a time as this.

The foregoing is from the New York World. We opine that but few Southerners, who may have emigrated to Brazil, have been moved thereto by any consideration involved in the existence of slavery in that country. They have had sufficient experience "on that line." Such as have gone have been attracted by the reputed openings for industry which that great empire presents, by the hope of bettering their shattered fortunes, and by the prospect of living under a government which will not subject them to political disfranchisement and degradation. We concur, however, with the World, in the opinion that, unless the condition of affairs should grow so much worse as to render remaining in the country intolerable, it would be far better for all our people to remain where they are, make the most of the situation, and unite in the work of building up our waste places.

The MEMPHIS Avalanche says it is impossible to exaggerate the horrors of the sufferings occasioned by the overthrow of the Mississippi. It has received the most terrible descriptions of men, women and children, cattle, horses and swine, heaped together in one indiscriminate pile with drift wood, fences and trash by the merciless waters. The inhabitants who escaped are scattered in every direction, houseless and homeless. Many, however, who were surrounded by water and cut off from help have died the most lingering and agonizing of deaths. The horrors of the worst scenes of the war have been outstripped by this wide spread and indescribable calamity.

WE SEE it stated, among the items of foreign intelligence, that a newspaper publisher is to be prosecuted by the French government for having circulated false news. If such a course had been customary in this country, for the past two years, there would not be a Radical paper left in the country. The misrepresentations and false news about "Southern outrages" upon freedmen and so-called loyalists, to which they have given currency, would bring them all under the ban.

THE National Intelligencer, of the 7th., says that the Supreme Court will not have the rules in bankruptcy published and ready for distribution before the 15th. of the present month.

—— Generally, throughout the State, the 10th. of May will be observed as a memorial day for our gallant dead.

—— The Bailey troupe are giving entertainments in Salisbury.

WORDS OF TRUTH.

That excellent journal, the Galveston News, has the following sensible remarks in relation to the efforts that are being made to control the colored vote:

"It is easy for even a negro to see that the legislation which "the party" has to defend is directly in opposition to his interest. No one need want anything better than the cotton tax to convince nine tenths of the negroes in Texas that all the professions of zeal and liberality made by his new friends in his behalf are totally unworthy of credit. Nor is there anything effective in the eloquence, public and private, which will be expended in showing him "who it was that gave him his freedom." All the negroes of the South know very well that their freedom was not the object for which the war was undertaken, and that the injury of the whites rather than the benefit of the blacks was the cause of the emancipation proclamation. We think they are very much inclined to regard their freedom as a pretty direct gift of Providence, and to feel that no special credit for it is due to "the arm of flesh." Moreover, they are very much disposed to suspect that the government or "the party" will always be calling upon them in some way to pay for their freedom, and any eloquence on that theme will only fulfill prophecies which they have often made and for which they have long been prepared, and the best of the matter is that these feelings of the negro—for we cannot call them reasonings—are entirely correct. They belong to an instinct which he possesses in a very marked degree as a substitute for intellectual development.—Little as he can be trusted in matters where judgment is necessary—little as he can be relied on to vote correctly without some advice—much as he requires a "guide, philosopher and friend"—wherever a mere designing party, on the one hand, is simply seeking his vote for selfish purposes, against the interests of his real friends, on the other, it will require a very small amount of labor to get him to make the proper decision. The difference between the two sides, in such a case, gets into the atmosphere and pervades all the surroundings, so that it is realized as plainly as any object of sense.

If it were possible for the mere politicians of the time to control the negro vote in one election they would not be able to keep it, but would soon find themselves stranded by a reaction. But we hardly think that this vote can be thus controlled in a single election. The very activity exhibited by those who want it so badly is a sign against them, while we really believe that the colored folks generally attribute the indisposition to electioneer among them by the Southern whites to the proper motive. We do not mention this as a reason why nothing should be done; but we do think that the honorable and kindly feeling which is at the bottom of this reluctance will give the advice which it is now becoming the duty of our people to bestow a very decided and effective force. There is, as we have before said, danger of going to the apparently apathetic extreme. We cannot, of course, afford to let our opponents have the field entirely to themselves, but we can carry into all action a similar spirit to that by which the Southern people have generally been actuated towards the negro, and this, we believe, will give all the success which we could reasonably expect or desire."

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun gives the particulars of the killing of a negro teamster and his four mules, by lightning, not far from that city. A man who saw the occurrence, a short distance off, says every living thing about the wagon dropped instantaneously with the flash—the four mules with their backs to each other and the driver in the saddle, with the reins in his hand and a basket on his arm. The ground around was open and level.

The sensational Radical press at the North might work up a heavy "Southern outrage" tragedy out of the above.

STRANGE.—We observe that the New York Herald, in copying our notice of Mr. Wilson's visit here and his speeches, omits entirely all allusion in the article to the name of the person with whom he breakfasted, and who introduced him to the audience. The Herald also credits the article to the Wilmington Sentinel.

BAIL FOR MR. DAVIS.—A dispatch to the New York Times says:

"Mr. Davis' counsel are preparing for his expected release very industriously, although Judge Underwood is known to hold that treason is not a bailable offence. Bail will be tendered in the sum of $100,000, and the two sureties first offered will be Augustus Schell and Horace Greeley. It should be remembered that the moment Mr. Davis is delivered to the custody of the Marshal, all military control over his person ceases, and the court must of necessity then dispose of his case in some manner. He may be remanded to jail for the next term, and if that happens he will be worse off than now, for the President would have no power to release him. Hence the anxiety of his counsel to secure the acceptance of bail."

AN IMPOSTER.—A Yankee emissary passed through this county last week and swindled the credulous freedmen of a considerable amount of their hard-earned greenbacks. He was incog. except to the negroes; no white person knew of his having been here until he had left. He persuaded the simple blacks, who are easily duped, and too willingly so, by those artful interlopers, whom they think, or pretend are their best friends—that by giving them their names he could register for them, and they would thereby become citizens and entitled to vote, with the Radical proviso, that they each pay him fifty cents. Being a generous and true friend to them, those who did'nt have a half he let off with a quarter, that none should be disfranchised by neglect of black mail, (male)

Such sinister and abominable scoundrels, whose sole object is to estrange the negroes from their true friends, should be looked after, both by the civil and military authorities, whose duty is to prevent frauds, as well as wicked and flagrant impositions.—Monroe (Ga) Advertiser.

SINGULAR DISEASE AMONG NEGROES IN PULASKI COUNTY.—The Lynchburg News has been shown a letter from a lady in Pulaski county, stating that a singular and fatal epidemic had broken out among the negro children in some portions of that county, that five had already died from it, and several others were prostrated with it, whose recovery was extremely doubtful. The disease has so far baffled the skill of the physicians who have been called to those afflicted with it and it appears to be spreading. The negroes are much alarmed at the fatality, and express very great surprise because it has not yet attacked any white people, notwithstanding the occurrence of cases on plantations where the whites and blacks reside in close association.—Richmond Enquirer.

New Orleans papers complain of the number of divorce suits in the courts, saying that ten are now entered to one instituted before the war. Three such suits have been entered in a single day. Most of the cases relate to persons married during or subsequent to the war.

VIEWS OF HON. D. M. BARRINGER

We copy, from the last Charlotte Democrat, the following letter from the Hon. D. M. Barringer, of this City, to a friend in Mecklenburg Co. The advice which Mr. Barringer gives is wise, practical and manly, and is just such as might have been expected from a gentleman of his excellent sense and conservative ideas. We express our hearty concurrence in his views:

RALEIGH, April 27th., 1867.

MY DEAR SIR:—You ask my opinion about the present aspect of public affairs, and what we ought to do in our sad political condition. Great domestic bereavements and severe trials of various kinds, have precluded any active participation, on my part, in political affairs for a long time; and since the war I have withdrawn more than ever. But I have not been an unconcerned spectator of the great events which have transpired and are still being enacted in the progress of this mighty revolution, both in our government and country. I was in Washington recently when the "Supplemental" Act was discussed and passed in Congress to carry into effect the measures which had been previously adopted for the 'reconstruction" of the Southern States. From a former acquaintance with leading members of that body, I had facilities of intercourse and conversation with influential men, in and out of Congress, of every shade of political opinion from all sections. My judgment then was, and now is, that it is best and wisest for our people to conform promptly, fully and faithfully with the terms of the acts of Congress for reconstruction and re-admission to Congressional representation.

It is useless, practically, now to inquire why this long and fatal delay in the Congressional plan, or why a different policy was not pursued—a policy of prompt and cordial reconciliation, which, enforced with firmness and a spirit of magnanimity, would have consolidated long ago, as, we think, the hearts and hands of every section of the South in support of the Constitution of the United States, to which the mass of our people were never enemies. The North, however, took a different view and course. The results of the war made them the "masters of the situation" and the arbiters of our fortunes for the time being. There is no self-humiliation in quiet, dignified and manly submission to our fate. We are not now called upon, as in the matter of the "Howard Constitutional Amendment," submitted to us as recognized States of the Union, for adoption or rejection, voluntarily, to degrade our best and most representative men; but, on the contrary, a military organization is directed to enforce, in effect, these acts of Congress, and State organizations are recognized only as provisional and permissive. The only choice which even the enfranchised have is to register their names and vote on certain propositions for conditional reconstruction, that will certainly be adopted in some shape or other, by the many or the few, whether the great mass of the people participate in the work or not.

My advice, then, is for all to register who can, and vote to carry into effect the plan of Congress, however harsh and unjust it may seem to us now. Let there be no hesitation, no sullenness. Opposition is useless and may lead to much mischief, and perhaps anarchy and further disaster. The acts declare, in substance, that they are to be a finality. Let the South act in good faith, and let not its breach, if broken it be, rest on our shoulders. The North will be responsible to the civilized world, to impartial history and to the unmistakable judgment of a scrutinizing and unprejudiced posterity, for the manner in which they avail themselves of their final success in the bloody conflict of arms. Let us do our part to lift the dark pall and terminate the fatal uncertainty which hangs over our future. We want quiet, and peace and plenty. We want capital and population and labor. We want restoration of our exhausted resources. There can be no steady influx of either money or people under this state of blighting uncertainty as to the future. We want a settled civil government in the States, and representation in Congress. We can never be as we were. The government itself is being rapidly changed. But we may save something of liberty and Constitutional rights. We may, at least, have peace and competence, and hope for prosperity and happiness in the future. There is no dishonor on our escutcheon. Misfortunes and even mistakes have brought no disgrace. Trials have ennobled us. We have submitted in good faith, with becoming manhood. The honorable and good among our recent foes in the field would not have us act otherwise. We would not be good citizens of the United States to be otherwise. Let us continue to prove ourselves true to our pledges of honor and sacred obligations. We may and, I think, will be reconstructed and re-admitted through the provisions of these acts of Congress. No practical benefit can be expected from the action of the Supreme Court, whatever its ultimate decision may be, if, indeed, any ever be given, on these political questions. But the good men of the South, though largely disfranchised, may still prevent much mischief and misrule and perhaps violence which may follow the counsels and efforts of the bad and of mere party men. There is no need for party strife and hatred. Are not our interests the same? Have we not suffered enough together to make us "brethren" indeed?—Why have parties now, either among the whites or the colored people? The political and civil rights of the latter are obliged to be secured in the fundamental law, whoever may win in the political race. The South is their home, and their interests are identified with ours. We all want peace with one another. Do men object that the acts of a Convention assembled under these measures of Congress would be illegal and unconstitutional? The vote of the people can validate what was uncertain, or even illegal, in the beginning. We can only "submit" or "resist." We have shown how we can do both, with manhood, an endurance, a glorious self sacrifice and magnanimity that have challenged the admiration of the world.

If then we submit—as submit we must—let us do so as cheerfully as we can, and let all those who can, take part in the efforts for reconstruction. Once in Congress and recognized there as in the Union, we are on an equal footing with the other States, and can maintain our rights as such. Let everybody then, who can, (I cannot) under the recent acts of Congress, register as soon as he can, and be prepared to vote for the best and wisest men to meet in Convention to frame anew, under all the difficulties that surround us, the fundamental law under which the people of our good old State may hope to live and prosper from generation to generation.

From my knowledge of the Military Commander, Gen. Sickles, whose duty it is to direct and provide for the registration of voters in the Carolinas, I have no doubt that full and fair opportunities will be given to all who are entitled and desire to be registered and vote. And I earnestly repeat that no one who can vote ought to neglect this duty of registration in the present momentous crisis in our affairs.

I remain, very truly yours,

D. M. BARRINGER.

DECLINE IN DRY GOODS.—The dry goods market is very much unsettled to-day, by the result of the large and peremptory sale of domestics yesterday. Some two thousand packages of stripes, ticks, checks, denims, and brown and bleeched sheetings were offered. The bidding developed a very unsatisfactory condition of the market for long grades of coarse goods, most of the offerings being disposed of a figure far below cost of production, even at the present low price of cotton. New styles and fine goods are still quickly taken.—N. Y. Commercial, 4th.

A mob at Seymour, Ind., hung a negro the other day for stealing, and two white men were threatened with the same fate.—There is great excitement in the place on account of frequent robberies.

GRAND PRESENTATION CONCERT

IN AID OF THE

SOUTHERN ORPHAN

ASSOCIATION,

INCORPORATED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF VIRGINIA,

Jan. 30th. 1867.

To be Given at Baltimore, June 17th. 1867.

TICKETS ONE DOLLAR EACH, TO BE HAD of JOHN BRAGG, Agent, at Southern Express Office, Raleigh, N. C.

Owing to recent troubles, the Managers have issued the following Card to which the attention of the Public is called:

OFFICE PRESENTATION CONCERT,
Baltimore, April 13, 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Our attention has been called to extracts in Southern papers reflecting upon the management of the Presentation Concert in aid of the Southern Orphan Association, and in answer to the statements and assertions contained in such extracts we wish to lay the whole matter before the people, that they may judge from the actions of our accusers the motives by which they are governed. We call attention to the facts contained in the following card, and request the public to bear in mind that the parties mentioned were only members invested with no authority to act in any official capacity whatever. The power they sought to usurp would give them full control of the books and funds, by which they could shape the first to suit them, and withdraw the latter from the bank, where it is now, subject to the order of the Association:

[From the Baltimore Gazette April 11.]

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Southern Orphan Association being liable to misrepresentation in consequence of the late arrest of some of its members on charges preferred by Mr. A. G. Kimberly, we beg leave to present the following statements in regard to the Association and its accusers:

At the inception of the Society the ladies connected with its origin, in view of difficulties that might arise in procuring a charter, determined to admit as members such gentlemen as were supposed to be proper to advise and assist them. Some of these gentlemen apparently worked for the sole benefit of the Association until the Charitable Concert was proposed. After that their actions showed but too plainly that they desired to obtain control of the Association.

At a meeting of the Trustees upon the 8th. of March a constitution, drawn up by Messrs. Kimberly and Hawkins, investing them with full power and authority to handle the funds of the Association and to examine its books, was proposed by Mr. Kimberly, and upon a vote being taken, it was laid aside. The ladies, with some exceptions, rejected it and the President and Treasurer, in recognizing the legality of the document, refused to vote. In this manner it was laid over. Notwithstanding this, the parties resolved themselves into committees and set to work.

On the 3d. of April a committee, consisting of Messrs. Kimberly and Bostock, under this so called constitution, came to our office and demanded the books. The President being present, stated that having refused to accept the constitution, she would not recognise the committee. On the 4th. Mr. Kimberly called, with two gentlemen, and again demanded the books, and was again refused.

On the 5th. by request of Messrs. Kimberly, Hawkins and Bostock, we, with two witnesses, attended an interview with them at Barnum's Hotel. Mr. Hawkins stated that he had that morning received a letter from General Trimble, authorizing him to prosecute us for having opened one of the General's letters, which he intended to do to the full extent of the law if we did not give up the books. As the officers should decide this, we told him that he would be answered next day. On that evening the officers and ourselves were arrested on a warrant issued by Mr. Kimberly, and released on bail. The next evening Mr. Hawkins issued a warrant for the arrest of our book keeper, Mr. Schiers, on the charge of having opened General Trimble's letter. As the charge was false, Mr. Schiers was dismissed. We see from this morning's "Sun" that these parties "announce their unqualified repudiation of the project," etc., which will be taken for what it is worth, when it will be shown that they repudiated, etc., because they lost their large commissions in the rejections of their farms and houses by the Society.

The offices and rank they append to their signatures are of their own creation, as the Society wishes the public to understand that it does not recognize the name and office of "Finance Committee" as ever having been created by said society.

We here leave the public to determine the motives of our accusers, for, to our mind, a simple narration of the above facts is sufficient to show that the Association and ourselves are attacked because we would not suit the purposes of Messrs. Hawkins, Bostock and Kimberly.

L. T. PALMER & CO.

In consequence of the persecution arising from our late connection with these persons, we are compelled to postpone the GRAND CHARITABLE PRESENTATION CONCERT to the SEVENTEENTH DAY OF JUNE, 1867. This will give us ample time to dispose of all the tickets, and it will afford the public an opportunity to investigate the facts which we have published, thus gaining that confidence which is necessary to ensure the success of every public measure.

We do not wish these statements to be taken unsubstantiated, as we cordially invite an investigation of the enterprise. The grand jury of this city presented us, and we hoped that they would go further and indict us, for we wished to prove to the world our honesty and disinterestedness in this measure, which could not be better done than in an investigation by the grand inquest.

It now remains with the public whether the "Home and School" shall be built. Whether the poor, fatherless children of the South, whose parents' blood was shed in defence of Southern homes, shall be deprived of the blessings which this enterprise seeks to obtain for them. Must we appeal in vain? No, it shall not be said that the Southern people were so ungenerous as to condemn those who are seeking to benefit the children of the soldiers who died for them, upon the evidence of men who, when they saw their own mercenary aims frustrated, sought to cover their guilt by bringing charges on us. Charges which, in the only trial that was allowed us, were proved to be as false as perjury could make them.

L. T. PALMER & CO.

Mrs. J. L. HAMMOND, President, Mrs. E. A. J. MEARES, Treasurer, Mrs. McCUBBIN and Mrs. SCHIERS, Trustees of the Southern Orphan Association, have also published a card. The following are extracts:

"We invite an examination of our books and the funds now accumulating in bank subject to the order of the Association, for the purpose of erecting the home and school for the orphans of the "Confederate dead" in the city of Richmond, Virginia. Nothing that we can say will testify more accurately the correctness of our plans than an investigation of our books and funds, and it was because we, as custodians of these treasures, would not surrender them to dishonest men, that we are now subject to their persecutions and abuse.

"We have seen the horrors and devastation of the late war, and know the immense amount of suffering occasioned by it. Homes were rendered cheerless by the loss of its head, who fell fighting for the homes of the South, and it was our sympathy for the poor and friendless orphans of the South that caused us to enter into the resolution of securing for them a home and providing an education, as may render them hereafter good and useful citizens of a free and happy land.

We confess, however, that if we could have looked through the future and seen the trials and persecutions to which we are subjected, we would have never attempted to begin so thankless a work. But now, having embarked in it, our reputation is at stake, and we must build the Home and School; therefore we call upon all good people to assist us toward the completion of our work by discrediting the assertions made by our enemies. And we ask—nay, we demand—that those papers whose opinions were founded upon the acts of our employees, should give to the public our statements, and modify their assertions so as to be in strict accordance with the facts.

Not long since, Messrs. L. T. Palmer & Co. published a card which, as we approved it then, we will officially endorse it now, that the information contained therein may go forth to the public with every guarantee for its truthfulness.

In consequence of the delay occasioned by the conduct of the persons above alluded to, we have been compelled to inform our managers to postpone the Concert until the 17th. day of June, 1867, that we may be able to begin the building as soon as our Concert business shall end."

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We would direct especial attention to the advertisement of "The Bottled Water of Rockbridge Alum Springs," Va., in another column.—This invaluable mineral water is a specific for most of the diseases enumerated, and has a world-wide reputation. It may be obtained of Messrs Purcell, Ladd & Co., Wholesale Druggists, Richmond. It will also be perceived, by the advertisement, that the famous Springs will be opened on the 1st. of June.

MR. LONG'S LECTURES.—We hope that our citizens will not forget that the first of Mr. Long's lectures is to be delivered in the Commons Hall, this evening. For the sake of the excellent object he has in view, and for the sake of the rich feast of eloquence which, we are sure, is to be enjoyed, we trust that the audience may be a large one.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Dicy Hood and Elvira Green, colored, for a misdemeanor, were returned to the next term of the County Court.

R. Harris, for an assault upon Madison Rand and Peter Rand, colored, was returned to the County Court.

W. Allen, for an assault upon Harry Christian, colored, was returned to the County Court.

Hawkins Bowens, white, Josephine Marler, white, Jane Ferrell, colored, and Henrietta Cook, colored, were lodged in the Guard House for a misdemeanor.

Caswell Hunt was lodged in the Guard House for intoxication on the street.

STOLEN.—A residence on Fayetteville Street has been entered some time within the past two days, and two heavy silver forks abstracted. They were marked, on the handle, with the initial letter "G." A suitable reward will be given for their recovery.

RENTERS' MEETING.—The proceedings of the Renters' Meeting, on Monday night last, did not reach us until our paper, on yesterday, was ready for the press. We, however, insert them to-day, contrary to rule, because of the importance of the subject.—It is due to the city press for us to say, that all statements, minutes or proceedings had, and which are intended for the daily or tri-weekly city press, should appear simultaneously in all the papers. Therefore, three copies should always be prepared by the clerk or secretary and sent simultaneously to each office. Where one copy is sent to one office only, with the request that slips be furnished to the other papers, it is almost impossible for the proceedings to appear simultaneously in all the papers. We suggest this particularly, because of our purpose to adhere to the rule, that where proceedings of meetings or other matters, which we are expected to insert gratis, are not received in time to appear in the Sentinel on the same day that they appear in the other papers, they will not be inserted the next day. This rule does not include advertisements.

The meeting in question was in relation to a very important subject—one in which the entire community is deeply interested. We would suggest, however, that the meeting should have been called both for rentors and rentees. The interests of the entire community are identical and mutual, and in all matters touching its welfare there should be kind co operation. There should be no conflict between rentor and rentee, but harmony and a desire to promote each other's welfare.

We think that, in view of the depressed state of business, the present rents are unquestionably higher than almost any rentee can afford to pay. High rents here were fixed at a time and under circumstances which do not now exist. Men of all kinds of business and every species of labor must sink irrecoverably under the pressure of the high rents and high taxes. If they are continued, our working men and tradesmen must seek employment elsewhere. There are, however, two sides of the question. It must be remembered, that some of our people are totally dependent, now, upon their rents for a support. Aged men and women and children, some of them, have been deprived of every other source of living and are unable to work.

WE ARE glad to see, by our morning's telegram, that our worthy young friend, Perrin Busbee, Messenger to the Governor, has received an appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

MEETING OF RENTERS.—A large and enthusiastic concourse of the citizens of Raleigh assembled at the Court House on Monday evening the 6th inst., to consider the exorbitant prices of rent.

Mr. Jas. C. Marcom was called to the chair, who, in a few appropriate remarks, explained the object of the meeting, and Mr. J. Bagwell was requested to act as secretary.

On motion, a committee of five, three whites and two colored, consisting of J. Bryant Jordan, J. B. Franklin and F. King, on the part of the whites, and Wm. High and George Fields, on the part of the colored, were appointed to adopt resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

The committee retired and after a short absence returned and reported the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, The condition of the country, the scarcity of money and provisions, and the general paralysis of our industrial resources, demand mutual forbearance, encouragement, and assistance between all classes of society, and the practice of the principle of "live and let live:" Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, a portion of the rent-payers of Raleigh, in public meeting assembled, would respectfully represent that the existing rates of rents are entirely disproportionate to our means, and, for the reasons set forth in the foregoing preamble, entirely in excess of our ability to pay, and of all of the requirements of "the situation."

Resolved, That recognizing the necessity of retrenchment in our expenditures, and feeling that the interests of all classes in the community are intimately associated, we appeal to landlords and property owners to effect such a reduction in the rates of rents, as will be more in accordance with the demands of the times, which, while increasing our ability to pay, will at the same time the better secure them against loss.

Resolved, That we are actuated in this movement by no captious motives, but by a simple sense of duty to ourselves and families.

Resolved, That a committee of nine, five whites and four colored, be appointed by the Chairman of this meeting to take such steps and make such public representations, as will conduce to the accomplishment of the ends we have in view.

The Chairman appointed the following gentlemen as the committee:

R. K. Ferrell, J. B. Jordan, Jno. B. Neathery, S. D. Harrison and O. Holt, on the part of the whites:

Wm. High, Jno. R. Caswell, Austin Curtis and Steward Ellison, on the part of the colored.

The meeting was addressed by several persons, white and colored.

On motion of Mr. Strother, the Secretary was instructed to request the city papers to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

After which the meeting adjourned to meet again on Monday evening, the 20th inst.

JAS. C. MARCOM, Chairman.

J. BAGWELL, Secretary.

STATE ITEMS.

—A correspondent of the Goldsboro' News, writing from Lenoir, Caldwell Co., gives the particulars of a daring robbery in that place, on the night of the 29th. ult.—The writer says:

"A colored woman, named Amanda Tuttle, entered the residence of Prof. L. F. Whitaker, before the house was closed for the night, and secreted herself in one of the upper rooms until a late hour in the night, when she descended, and, in accordance with previous arrangements, entered into between herself and her accomplices, admitted a negro man, named Cass Coaly, and a negro woman, whose name has not yet been divulged.

The three then proceeded to the chamber where Prof. W., and wife, and infant child were sleeping, and armed with pistol and club, (as was afterward confessed) entered the room, and without waking any of the inmates, abstracted the pocket book from Prof. W.'s pantaloons pocket, which contained some valuable papers and about $12 or $16 in currency, and carried off the contents of the bureau drawers, which consisted of a large quantity of ladies' and children's apparel.

They then proceeded to an upper room where were sleeping the eldest daughters of Prof. W., and entering brought out from thence the entire contents of one large trunk, which consisted of wearing apparel, principally. They also carried off a portion of bed clothing from two other rooms.—Very early next morning, suspicion having fallen upon the woman Amanda Tuttle, pursuit was made, and she was overhauled about 11 miles from this place, having in her possession nearly all the articles stolen. She immediately confessed the name of the negro man, her accomplice, who was found at a farm house in the neighborhood and arrested. Both are now safely lodged in jail."

—There is to be a grand coronation ceremony and charade in Newbern, to-night, the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to the completion of the Confederate Cemetery.

—A large crowd of colored people assembled in the Court House, in Goldsboro, on Saturday last, expecting an address from Mr. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, who didn't come. The assemblage, however, was addressed by Mr. O'Hara, colored, who uttered some conservative sentiments, and took occasion to give Conway a severe rapping.

—The Norfolk Journal has seen a set of silver ordered by some one in this State at the trifling cost of $425, and a diamond set at the ridiculous amount of $950.

—The Spring Term of Mecklenburg Superior Court was in session last week, Judge Gilliam presiding. Dave Blackwood and —— Peoples, both colored, were found guilty of larceny. The Western Democrat appropriately says:

"If our judicial authorities were allowed to inflict punishment according to the laws in force in this State for many years past, we should hear of less stealing and have fewer depredations of all sorts. In these latter days, however, a criminal must either be hanged, or kept in jail, as a punishment, at county expense, while his wife and children are suffering or starving.

Which is the most barbarous practice: whipping a rogue when convicted, and then turn him loose to work for the support of his family, or keeping him confined in jail whilst his family is suffering for food? The law givers of the present day may answer."

—The Statesville American says that "reports reach us from all sections of the fine and promising appearance of the growing wheat crop. In this county, the prospect never was better, at this season of the year. A gentleman, who has traveled forty miles south of this, gives glowing accounts of the crop prospects below, in North and South Carolina. The wheat harvest there will begin in three or four weeks—in Georgia earlier. He reports the freedmen working remarkably well in the section he visited. We think the same may be said of them in this county."

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 7.

The case of the commonwealth of Virginia vs. West Virginia was up to-day in the Supreme Court, and is still on argument. This case raises the question of the status of Virginia as a State in the Union, as West Virginia denies the right of her Legislature to make and valid enactments.—The immediate question is the jurisdiction over certain counties claimed to have been transferred by fraudulent representations. A decree is asked, reinstating these counties to old Virginia.—The argument will probably occupy two more days. Messrs. Stanton, Addison and Reverdy Johnson represent Western Virginia and Messrs. Andrew Hunter and Benjamin R. Curtis, of Boston, represent the old Dominion.

Among the President's appointments to the Naval Academy, at Annapolis, are Thos. S. Plunkett, of Tennessee, Frank L. Clark, of Kentucky, Perrin Busbee, of North Carolina, and Jos. H. Sands, son of Commodore Sands.

Maj. General Joe Hooker has a year's leave of absence, with permission to go abroad.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

CINCINNATI, May 7.

The American Medical Association met to-day. All parts of the country are represented. The Convention will be in session several days.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTION.

LOUISVILLE, May 7.

Additional returns indicate the election of the entire Democratic Congressional ticket.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 7.

The street car question is settled. The Chief of Police has issued an order forbidding the interference with negroes on any street car.

The steamer Young America from Indianola, for New Orleans, went ashore at Saluria Island in the gale on Saturday. The crew were saved.—The cargo of cattle was mostly lost.

In the hurricane, on Sunday, the Mississippi burst its banks below the city, destroying the telegraph line a considerable distance. The extent of the damage is not known.

FROM RICHMOND—MORE TROUBLE.

RICHMOND, May 7.

A negro, to-day, attempted to ride in the car appropriated to the whites and was put off. The case was laid before the Grand Jury of the U. S. Court.

A large meeting of the negroes, to-night, was addressed by Mr. Haywood, of Massachusetts, and Marsh, of Virginia, both of whom favored confiscation.

FENIANS.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, May 7.

Thirty Fenians boarded the schooner Elk and tore down the British colors. They quietly left the schooner after accomplishing their object.

DEATH FROM CHLOROFORM.—The April number of the Medical News and Library relates four cases of death from the inhalation of chloroform. The first was of a lady 20 years of age, living in Bloomington, Illinois. She was apparently in good health, but suddenly expired after inhaling about a drachm of chloroform given for the relief of pain in the extraction of teeth. Three days previously she had inhaled chloroform and had six teeth extracted without any bad effect. The second case was on the occasion of the performance of an operation by Professor Hamilton, of New York. The patient was a robust woman. The third case was of a man in the hospital at Toronto, Canada, to whom chloroform was administered preparatory to tying the external iliac artery.—The fourth case occurred in St. Mary's Hospital, London. It was that of a stableman, to whom chloroform was administered to facilitate the reduction of a dislocated thumb.

A PARALLEL.—A few broken down, fifth rate politicans, combined with about an equal number of Yankee capitalists, have met in Atlanta and denounced Governor Jenkins as lacking in good sense and statesmanship. A party of ragged London newsboys, it is related, being deprived of the privilege of hawking their wares in the street to the public annoyance, met in solemn council and unanimously adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Lord Mayor is an ignoramus and a nuisance.

The Lord Mayor is supposed to have been dreadfully hurt in spirit and damaged in reputation by this fulmination from Shinbone alley. Governor Jenkins, of Georgia, is doubtless equally disconsolate.—Macon Telegraph.

The Hon. John Bell, of Tennessee, is now living at his home, near the Cumberland Iron Works, a few hours' steamboat travel below Nashville, on the Cumberland river. He is about seventy-three years old, badly broken down physically and pecuniarily.—Before the war he owned six hundred negroes, worth a quarter of a million at least, and was the principal owner in the large iron works at Chattanooga, which was burned in 1862. He is very much disgusted with politics and affairs generally, and has no sympathy with the new condition of affairs.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analysis made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

THE SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1867.

"THY WILL BE DONE!"

[The following beautiful Ode was sung by Mrs. J. E. Nash, Miss Nannie Daves, Mr. F. C. Roberts, Maj. D. G. Hurtt and Mrs. J. E. Nash, on the occasion of laying the corner stone of the Confederate Mausoleum, in Newbern, a few days since:]

My God, my Father, while I stray,
Far from my home, in life's rough way,
O teach me from my heart to say
Thy will be done.

Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not,
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught
Thy will be done.

What though in lonely grief I sigh,
For friends beloved no longer nigh,
Submissive would I still reply
Thy will be done.

If Thou shouldst call me to resign,
What most I prize, it ne'er was mine,
I only yield Thee what is Thine;
Thy will be done.

Let but my fainting heart be blest,
With Thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God to Thee I leave the rest;
Thy will be done.

Renew my will from day to day,
Blend it with Thine and take away,
All that now makes it hard to say
Thy will be done—Amen!

A NEW HANGING DAY.—Speaking of the hanging of three murderers in Cincinnati on Tuesday last, the Enquirer of that city says:

"It is the first instance in our State, and, indeed, we may say throughout the country, save in Pennsylvania, where the last Legislature, by express statute, required the change, that any other day than Friday has been selected for the consummation of these legal tragedies. We think that the change of the proverbial day is a good one, for the fact is indisputable that because Friday was "hangman's day," it has greatly deepened and intensified the superstitious prejudice existing in the public mind against the fifth day of the week, and which, in a multitude of cases, operates as a hindrance and detriment to social and business relations. We hope this attempt of the State in relieving Friday of the legal odium will meet with better success than that of the merchant and ship builder in New York, many years ago, whose experiment is noticed in no less a work than Kent's Commentaries on American Law.

Mariners are more than usually imbued with prejudice against Friday as a day of ill-luck and ill-omen. They frequently, if not always, refuse to leave port on that day, and the detention is quite costly to the owner. This ship-builder, consequently, built a vessel on "Friday", named it the "Friday," and compelled it to set sail on "Friday." Unfortunately for the success of the laudable wish of the merchant, the vessel was never heard of afterward, says Mr. Kent, thus fully confirming the sailors in all their superstitions!

The registering of voters under the Military Bill is progressing rapidly, the negroes registering in great numbers, and far exceeding the whites. The scene of registering is rich and funny. Two ranks are formed outside of the Register's office, principally darkies of every grade, interspersed here and there by a few white men. The following is the process of making voters or conferring the franchise on the colored citizens of African descent.

Register—What is your name?

Colored Citizen—My name is Cæsar, boss.

Register—What is your other name?

Colored Citizen—Well, boss, dey didn't gib me my odder name, but old massa's name was Grandison, and I must hab his name now.

Register.—Did you ever hold any office under the United States or under the State of Louisiana?

Colored Citizen.—Yah, yah; well yes, boss; I sweeps out an assurance office an lawyer's office.

Register.—Did you ever give aid or comfort to the Confederate States?

Colored Citizen.—I didn't gib nuffin, caze I didn't hab nuffin to gib.

Register.—Did you ever serve in the Federal or rebel army?

Colored Citizen.—Well boss, I didn't serve neider; but the Yankees want to take me to make brefworks for 'em, and so I went to cook for the rebs.

Register.—Then you gave them aid and comfort, didn't you?

Colored Citizen.—Why no, boss; dey gib me all de aid and comfort, for if it was not for dem, I'd been dead nigger long ago.

Register.—Swear him in.

Greely says the man who pays more for shop rent than for advertising don't know his business.

FINE CROP OF LAMBS.—General G. S. Meem, after marketing a fine lot of wethers during the winter, owns thirteen hundred ewes and several bucks. The ewes have sixteen hundred lambs, all said to be doing well.—Shenandoah Herald.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for ——months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4 That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

McILWAINE & CO.,

Wholesale Dealers in Foreign and Domestic

Dry Goods, Notions & Clothing,

NO. 79 SYCAMORE, and
NO. 1 TABB STREETS,

PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA,

Take pleasure in announcing to the trade that they have in store, ready for exhibition, a large assortment of embracing all articles usually kept in wholesale establishments. Their long business experience with the merchants of

NEW SPRING GOODS,

has made them familiar with their wants; this, together with the advantages they possess in purchasing their supplies, enables them to offer goods at such prices as will insure satisfaction. They specially invite the attention of buyers to their extensive stock of manufactured expressly to their own order, which for style, workmanship and cheapness cannot be surpassed. They would also call attention to a full line of

NOTIONS,

All of which will be offered to purchasers on the very best terms, by Capt. Edward Graham and Mr. John McNeece, who have charge of the department.

THE NEWS AND FARMER,

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

By R. M. STOKES.

HAVING PURCHASED THE OFFICE OF THE Asheville News, I have determined to enlarge it and devote its columns more especially to the interests of and all the other industrial pursuits of the State of North Carolina. For this purpose I have secured the assistance of many of the best practical scientific writers in nearly all parts of the State, who have agreed to contribute regularly to its columns valuable information on all the above subjects.

It will be the pride of the Proprietor to make the "News and Farmer" one of the handsomest as well as most valuable agricultural and family journals in the State.

The News and Farmer is published in one of the richest Agricultural and mining sections of the State, and enjoys almost the exclusive patronage of ten counties. This fact gives it great advantages to advertisers. Its subscription is now increasing daily from all parts of the State.

TERMS:

1 Copy 1 year, $3; 2 Copies $5.50; 5 Copies, $12.50; 10 copies $20, invariably in advance.
